COUNTY OPENS WESTERN AVE. PAVING BIDS

The board of supervisors Monday opened bids for the paving of Western avenue north from the Torrance limits. The contract will be awarded immediately so that the contractor will be able to start work as soon as operations begin inside the Torrance city limits. City Engineer J. J. Jessup and Secretary Harry Gadeky of the Chamber of Commerce were present at the meeting of the board when the contracts were opened.

Klan Lecturer To Speak In Torrance At 7:30 Tonight

James Bush Bronson, lecturer of the Ku Klux Klan, will deliver an address at American Legion hall at 7:30 tonight. This meeting was originally announced for the Community church in Lomita, but the place of meeting was changed. The public is invited to attend the lecture. The speaker, it is announced, will outline the Klan's attitude toward the flag, the constitution, law and order, the public school, the home, immigration, and politics.

ATTENDS MEETING

Charles W. Mueller attended a dinner and "right of way" meeting recently at the Robal inn. The affair was given by C. W. Johnson of the American Railway Express company, and his official family.

STONES ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone of Athens entertained at cards one evening recently. The Torrance folks present included Mr. and Mrs. William Stanger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bartlett.

SEE "LIGHTNIN"

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fronger of West Carson street, Miss Billie Barnes of Long Beach, and Grover C. Whyte of Arlington avenue enjoyed "Lightnin'" at the Biltmore Thursday evening.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Creighton of Redondo boulevard entertained at dinner Saturday evening in honor of the seventy-seventh birthday of Mrs. Creighton's father, Mr. Grant. Covers were laid for 15 relatives—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Grant of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Grant and family, Mrs. E. M. Douglas, Mrs. J. P. Pinney and two children, of Los Angeles, and the host and hostess and their family. Mr. Grant has one son and three daughters in Southern California, all of whom were present to wish him many more such birthdays. A large birthday cake, decorated with candles, adorned the table. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all.

LOMITA MAN PAINFULLY HURT AS CARS CRASH IN TORRANCE; PIPE PINS HIM TO AUTO SEAT

Raymond Whitman, 2931 Fir street, Lomita, was painfully injured and narrowly escaped a terrible death Saturday night when the car in which he was riding with W. M. Lavier and H. A. Hodson ran into a Petroleum Midway truck laden with drill pipe. The pipe extended far out over the edge of the truck. When the Lavier car, which was being driven by Hodson, ran into the truck the drill pipe crashed through the dash and pinned Whitman to the seat. He was unable to extricate himself until the truck was driven forward. The accident occurred on Carson street, near Ivy. The truck was driven by H. E. Ingersoll, 1545 218th street, Torrance.

Woman's Club To Attend Culinary School At Reeve's

The ladies of the Torrance Woman's club will attend, in a body, the cooking demonstration at the "Hardware" Reeve store Wednesday night at 7 p. m. and receive a special lecture in cooking instruction from Mrs. Hall, who is holding daily demonstrations at the store this week. Other Torrance ladies who would care to attend are also invited.

POT-LUCK DINNER

An interesting program will be presented at the "pot-luck" dinner to be given husbands and friends of the Torrance Woman's club at the high school Friday, April 4, at 6 p. m.

FOUR-YEAR-OLD HAS A PARTY

Little Miss Alberta Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Young of Cota avenue, was hostess at a charming party recently in honor of her fourth birthday. Games and an Easter egg hunt furnished amusement for the little guests, to whom delicious refreshments were served.

The kiddies present included John and Alice Dean McDonald, Compton; Audrey and Larry Clapp, Maywood; Margery and Norma Warthan, Doris Paxton, Ethel May Denny, Ethel Creighton, Nellie May Johns, Joseph Young. Among the elders present were Mrs. D. G. McDonald of Compton, Mrs. L. R. Clapp of Maywood, Mrs. F. L. Sexton of Anaheim, Mrs. William Creighton, Mrs. N. K. Woods, and Mrs. Melvin Johns.

The Torrance Relief will meet at the usual place at 1:30 on Friday afternoon.

Business Men to Meet on Thursday

The regular monthly meeting of the Torrance Business Men's association will be held in Freeman's cafeteria Thursday night. Dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 o'clock.

President Reeve has arranged for out-of-town speakers, who will enlighten the members on the safest way of cashing checks of strangers and also the safest way of avoiding the raising of checks by parties who practice this system of making a living without working. Very important business is up for discussion and it is hoped that every member will be out.

WOMAN'S GUILD FOOD SALE

The Woman's Guild of the Episcopal mission in Torrance will hold a food sale in Baird's hardware store next Saturday, April 5. The proceeds of the sale are to help with the fund needed to establish a building on their lot where services may be held.

Please remember the date, and come. There will be a variety of good things to eat.

AT CARDS

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bartlett of Gramercy avenue entertained at cards one evening recently Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone of Athens and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanger, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Young, Mrs. Pillar, and Charles Mueller.

WILL ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Letha Miller of 2607 Sonoma street will entertain Friday, April 4, at a silver tea for the benefit of the Central Evangelical Guild.
